- Strong drawing, painting, and sculptural competence.
- Self-motivated and able to collaborate successfully with a wide range of colleagues.
- Ability to trouble-shoot problems in a calm and effective manner.
- Experience with safe handling of hazardous shop materials.

Preferred Skills and Qualifications:

- Experience estimating time and material needs.
- Proficiency in scenic sprayers including P50, Hudson, Preval, Air Brush, Hopper/texture gun, & Pneumatic Sprayers.
- Knowledge of OSHA standards and safety protocols.

Position Responsibilities:

- Assist the CSA in the painting and surface treatment of all scenic elements in an efficient, safe and timely manner while maintaining a high standard of quality.
- Assist in the creation of paint & surface treatment samples.
- Communicate with the CSA about how best to accomplish daily and long- range goals.
- Help to organize and clean the Paint Shop and paint areas.
- Keep track of inventory and maintain shop supplies and tools.
- Assist in periodic upkeep/touch up of painted elements during the run of a production.
- Assist other scenic artists when needed if CSA is unavailable.
- Instruct others on tools, materials, techniques, and practices.
- Assist in the creation of a “touch up kit” for productions.
- Other duties as assigned.

Work Environment and Physical Demands:

May require work with hazardous materials and use of specialized safety equipment.

Ability to lift a full 5-gallon bucket.

Ability to walk, sit, stand and climb stairs.

Frequent work at a fast pace with unscheduled interruptions.
